2. [REDACTED] DIA Development and Training Branch, is making a study of financial assistance of other Government agencies who sponsor part-time academic students. Currently, DIA reimburses for full tuition and books; however, due to budget cuts, they are looking for ways to economize. [REDACTED] called AIR to compare our assistance with DIA's; he commented that possibly DIS would discontinue paying for books.

3. DODCI has offered us a space in the 27 July - 7 August running of the Introduction to Computer Technology Course. This course is similar to the Intermediate Executive Course, but the grade requirement is GS-12 - 14 (Intermediate is GS-14 - 15). The Office of Security has expressed an interest, and will let AIR know if they have a candidate. This is the second space we have been offered in this Course; [REDACTED] OL, attended in December 1969.

b. [REDACTED] FE (OS), who has spent the last five months at Armed Forces Staff College. Jack was impressed with the program, but has recommendations for the Agency in its selection process for future attendees of the program. His critique will include a copy of his staff study which centered on the applicability of the program for Agency employees. Jack had compliments on the fairness of our current TDY system for the College ($9 a day), and said that his final accounting showed this amount to be quite satisfactory.
